

CERTIFICATE OF PARTICIPATION

iversity hereby certifies that GESSICA PEREIRA has participated in the following course from August 2018 to June 2020:

Fair Wage Strategies in a Global Economy

Why are income inequalities so large and why do they continue to increase in so many countries? What role can minimum wages play in reducing social and economic inequalities? What is a good system of wage bargaining? What constitutes a fair wage?

Where poverty and inequality have been reduced, this has mainly been thanks to the creation of regular waged jobs and a more equitable wage structure. Sustainable wage policies and fair wage setting mechanisms can contribute to a more equal and prosperous society for all. This course has offered a mix of video lectures and interviews, readings, online resources and exercises to gain both knowledge and practical skills to understand the actual landscape of wage setting.

Chapter 1: Political economy of wages

Chapter 2: The role of collective bargaining

Chapter 3: Minimum and living wages

Chapter 4: Macroeconomics of wages

Chapter 5: Wage setting in an unfair world

Chapter 6: Workers' strategies and campaigns for Minimum Wages, Collective Bargaining and Decent Wages
